The Appomattox County Jaycees are once again preparing for their annual "Jaycee Country Music Show". The event is scheduled to take place Nov. 22 at 7:30 p.m. but, unlike previous years, will be held at the Appomattox Intermediate School Auditorium. Admission will be $2.00 to anyone who will occupy a seat. Competition will be offered in three categories; Blue Grass, Country Music and Vocalist, with trophies being awarded in each category. Henry Fulcher of Radio Station WFLO will serve as Master of Ceremonies and additional entertainment will be provided by the popular "Partytimers" from Lynchburg. Sherwill 4-H'ers View History

Sylvia Carson, 1st Vice President, presided in the absence of Yolanda Pash, the club's president at the October meeting.

Many of the members told of the special interest that had developed in the last month in carrying out a project or projects. This system is to be followed from month to month. The members enjoy learning about what others are doing and sharing ideas can prove helpful.

Some highlights of the last month were: Ann Evans attended the National Quarter Horse Show in Columbus, Ohio, October 24 - 26, Sylvia Carson promoted and helped with the Red Cross Bloodmobile at Concord School Friday, October 25, and James Hancock, III was on TV with "Bicycle Safety Tips" one Saturday morning in October and Teresa Wayurak reminded the group, "now is the time to put bulbs in if one has not."

James Hancock III was recognized for having won a trip to National 4-H Congress to be held in Chicago, November 29 - December 6. His major interest has been bicycle, but he has carried many other projects all the years starting in the fourth grade. The donor of the bicycle project award is Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co. of Akron, Ohio.

Historical places of Campbell County were shown on slides and talked about by Mrs. Janet Clement of the Extension Services.

The November meeting is to be November 25 at 7:30 p.m. at which time Sylvia Carson will be hostess and have a program on safety.

Achievement night is to be November 14 at Yellow Branch School.

Refreshments were served.
